WARNING: If you purposely provide false or misleading information, you may be subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both.

Policy
The Financial Aid Office will accept requests for special consideration. We will exercise professional judgment in case of unusual and documented circumstances, even if there are limitations and prohibitions that will be imposed. We will consider written, documented requests from students who wish to be exempt from the regular terms and conditions of the law.
The student is responsible for submitting all pertinent documentation with the request for special consideration. The student must submit any documentation requested by the Financial Aid Office during review. If the students appeal is approved, the student agrees to complete and pass all courses they are registered for upon approval of the appeal, according to the standards of the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy.
