

Dr. Henry C. (Chuck) Bohleke has been selected to serve as the Dean of Career and Technical Education at College of Eastern Idaho.

Dr. Bohleke comes to CEI with a PhD in Business Administration and many years of experience in higher education. His career in higher education began when he accepted a position as an adjunct instructor. He went on to become a full-time faculty member before moving into administrative roles that included department chair and Dean.

In his free time, Dr. Bohleke has served on boards of community organizations and chambers of commerce, and participated in fundraising, advocacy, and programs for various philanthropic organizations.

CEI is confident that Dr. Bohleke will prove to be a valuable member of the team and a skilled leader at our new and growing community college.
