Your 2025-2026 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The federal government requires colleges to check the accuracy of the information you provided on your FAFSA. You must complete this worksheet, sign, attach any required documents, and submit the form to the Financial Aid Office before they can establish your eligibility for assistance. If you have questions about verification, contact our Financial Aid Office.

The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) indicates that you have received one or more OVERPAYMENTS of federal student aid funds. This could include federal student loan(s) or grant(s). You are required by law to repay any federal student aid funds received for which you were not entitled. You are not eligible to receive any federal student aid until you resolve your overpayment(s).

- To obtain information log in to Federal Student Aid at www.studentaid.gov

If you have repaid the overpayment(s), please obtain documentation that the overpayment(s) has been paid in full or you have made payment arrangements and return the documentation to the Financial Aid Office.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- To resolve your overpayment(s) call the U.S. Department of Education at 1-800-621-3115,
  - OR Write to the U.S. Department of Education, P.O. Box 5609, Greenville, Texas 75403.

Attach one of the following:

- An official letter from the Department of Education indicating your overpayment has been cleared and you are now eligible for Title IV funding.
- OR Attach an official letter from your lender indicating you have paid the overpayment in full.

Attach the required document(s) and return this form to the Financial Aid Office.

Certifications and Signatures

The person signing this form certifies that all of the information reported is complete and correct. The student whose information was reported on the FAFSA must sign and date.

Student Signature: _____ Date: _____
WARNING: If you purposely provide false or misleading information, you may be subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both.
