Your FAFSA indicates you, your spouse or your parent(s) did not file taxes for 2022. If you, your spouse or your parent(s) did not file taxes for 2022, please submit an IRS Verification of Non-filing Letter to the Financial Aid Office. A Verification of Non-filing Letter may be obtained through the IRS at www.irs.gov Select 'Get Transcript Online'. Or you can request it in writing by printing Form 4506-T and submitting to the IRS.

If you're unable to provide documentation of non-filing from the IRS you can complete this statement of non-filing.

I, _____, have in good-faith tried to the best of my ability to obtain a Verification of Non-Filing Letter from the IRS. I have been unable to obtain a Verification of Non-Filing Letter due to complications with the IRS. This statement is to confirm that I did not file taxes for 2022, because I either did not make enough to file taxes or I made no taxable income. Below is stated any taxable income that I earned for 2022, if applicable, and I have attached any W-2's for income earned in 2022.
(First Name) (Last Name)
