The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) indicates you have one or more student loans in an active bankruptcy status. Before you can receive additional federal student aid, you must provide documentation of your bankruptcy.

INSTRUCTIONS:

All financial aid applicants who have recently filed bankruptcy or have a bankruptcy judgement must provide a copy of the front page of the bankruptcy filing. If you filed Chapter 13 Bankruptcy, attach a letter from the trustee which states that you are allowed to borrow additional Student Loans.

Please attach the required documents and return this form to the Financial Aid Office.

Certifications and Signatures

The person signing below certifies that all of the verification documents submitted with this certification are complete and correct. The student whose information was reported on the FAFSA must sign and date.
